"Simply Entertainment"

The stars are coming to INPUT '99! We have Tom Jones, Joan Rivers, The Phantom of the Opera and of course Elvis Presley. Come and join in on a musical fun filled evening with the "Simply Entertainment Show".

The show is hosted by Joan Rivers (Jeff Dawson). Jeff hails from Phoenix, Arizona and was the star of the long running Toronto production of "An Evening At La Cage". His exacting vocal and visual reproduction of Joan Rivers along with his own personal quick wit and hilarious material will simply leave you rolling in the aisles.

The Vegas Elvis (Kevin Mills) will be performing all of your favourite Elvis tunes. Kevin is from Philadelphia and as well as winning a major international Elvis competition in Memphis was selected to portray the young Elvis in A & E's documentary "Elvis - The Early Years". Further he performed at Bill Clinton's first inaugural ball. After Kevin's performance you will likely feel as if you have seen the real Elvis.

Finally, in addition to being the producer and director of the "Simply Entertainment Show", you will see and hear

Joe Callura perform as Tom Jones and Phantom of the Opera as well as perform some original songs from his "Love From Many Angles" C.D. Joe is from Hamilton, Ontario and has performed throughout North America. He has recently returned from performing at Harrah's in Las Vegas. "Powerful", "Emotional" and "Wide Ranging" are some of the terms used to describe Joe's vocal talents. This, combined with the explosive energy of his Tom Jones act will surely fill your entertainment appetite.
